Red Kite Community Housing seeks Tenant Board Member to strengthen tenant voice

Red Kite Community Housing is seeking a shared owner, tenant, or leaseholder to join its Board as a Tenant Board Member, reinforcing its commitment to tenant-led decision-making.

Noreen Adams, Head of Governance at the High Wycombe based housing association, said: “We’re a tenant-led organisation, which means our tenants are at the heart of the decisions we make. As a Board member, they would help shape the future of our homes, services and communities.

“The experience as one of our tenants, leaseholders or shared owners is incredibly valuable, and these voices could help make a real difference.”

You don’t need to have been on a Board before. Red Kite will give you training, support and time to learn the role. What matters most is that you:

- Care about improving homes and services
- Are willing to share your views and ask questions
- Can work with others and think about the bigger picture.

The role involves around 2–3 days a month, including meetings and preparation. Board meetings are usually held in the late afternoon/early evening. You’ll receive £6,000 a year, along with training and support.

Noreen added: “This is a great opportunity to represent the views of your community and influence decisions that affect the people who live with it, as well as build your skills and confidence.”
